JOKES

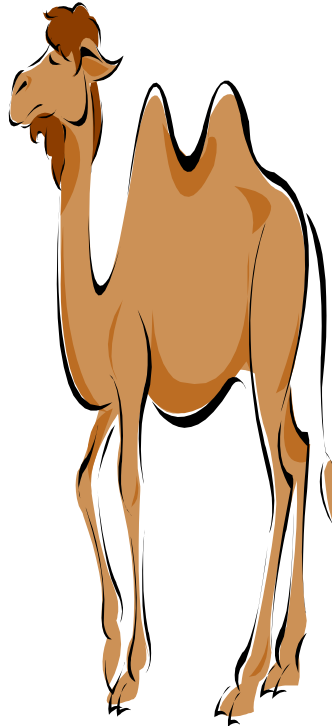

PANTO 2011 - 25th - 29th January

RAIDERS OF THE LOST PYRAMID

January's pantomime rehearsals are well under way now and going well. Cast are getting into their parts and Malcolm is getting very excited about the set! He is promising me some good effects and props and is even turning his hand to making our very own camel!

With a slightly re-written script and the addition of a new character it should be a fun production.

Tickets, £5 and £3, should be on sale this month so don't forget, book early to avoid disappointment. (Tony Barber, 01430 423617)

What's a pirate's favourite letter of the alphabet?

R!

What do you call a camel with no humps?

Humphrey!

What did the mummy do after a stressful day in the pyramid?

Unwind!

What does it cost for a pirate to have his ears pierced?

A buck an ear!!

Following our success at their panto party last year, Kinderland have once again asked us to appear there and also at a party they are hosting for Hull Foster Carers' Service.

We will be taking a selection of traditional panto characters to entertain the children.

Dates: 19th Dec 5-7pm and 22nd Dec 6 - 8pm.

Those of you who would like to attend with your children can do so on the 22nd by contacting Kinderland.

What do you get if you cross an Egyptian Mummy with a car mechanic?

Tut 'n' car man!

And finally..... NORTH CAVE VILLAGE HALL OPEN DAY

North Cave Village Hall are having an Open Day on Sunday 5th December and they have asked us if we would like to have a stand to promote ourselves and the panto. Anyone who is free please let me know as we will need volunteers to man the stall throughout the day—I will have further details from Bill soon and will put them on the website.

We should take this opportunity to do everything we can to promote the group and the panto; surprisingly there are still people who live in the area who have never heard of us! This is our chance to put that right.

Even if you can only spare half an hour please call in and give your support.
